Dear Stephen,

RANDOX TESTING SERVICES

I am writing further to my letter of 15 March about the incident at a Forensic Service Provider (FSP), Radox Testing Services.

On the 22 March I was made aware that the United Kingdom Accreditation Service (UKAS) had suspended the ISO 17025:2005 accreditation of the Radox laboratory in Manchester on the 21 March.

The Forensic Science Regulator and Home Office officials have been liaising with Radox as well as with the Crown Prosecution Service, UKAS and the NPCC to assess the impact on policing.
