Dear David

Further to your evidence to the Committee this morning on the sectoral analyses that you provided to the Committee on 27 November, the Committee will consider next week whether to publish the documents.

To inform that discussion, I am writing – as I undertook to do – to ask whether there is any specific material in these documents that you would ask the Committee not to publish on the grounds that it was commercially, market or negotiation sensitive information.

I would be grateful if you could reply by the end of Tuesday 12 December.

Rt Hon Hilary Benn MP
Chair of the Committee
