Dear Michael,

I have in the last couple of days received copied documentation of serious allegations being made by and on behalf of the Russian female athlete Shobukhova from David Bedford. I have spoken to David today on the phone and he advises me that he has shared this information with you. Should I forward this documentation to you? The purpose of this note is of course to advise you that I have now been made aware of the allegations. I recognise you are on holiday and I am at the European Track and Field Championships but would be grateful for your advice.

As ever,

Seb
