Dear Ms Hillier,

At the Public Accounts Committee hearing on 20 November 2017 we stated that over 1,300 EEA nationals were refused entry into the UK for the year ending June 2017.

The exact figure we should have given is that the Home Office refused entry to 3,064 EEA nationals, and 1,611 of these were stopped at our juxtaposed borders. These figures are already in the public domain.

I apologise for this error, and for not writing to correct this inaccuracy sooner.

Yours sincerely,

Patsy Wilkinson
