Rt Hon. Philip Hammond MP
Chancellor of the Exchequer
HM Treasury
1 Horse Guards Road
London SW1A 2HQ

20th July 2018

Dear Philip,

I welcome the Government's commitment to publish technical notices to help people and businesses plan for Brexit, in the event that there is no Withdrawal Agreement in place on 30 March 2019.

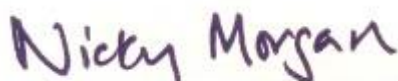

This information will no doubt be voluminous and technical. I am sure you will agree that, for people and businesses properly to understand the practical impact of 'no deal', it is important that it is set in the wider context of both the Government's own contingency planning, and the macroeconomic and fiscal consequences.

To that end, I am writing to request that – alongside the technical notices to be published in August and September – the Government makes available the most up-to-date versions of the papers produced for the Inter-Ministerial Group on Preparedness. The Treasury should also make available any further analysis it has produced on the wider economic and fiscal consequences of 'no deal'.

This information would be most usefully published alongside the technical notices over the summer; but in the event that it is not, I expect that the Committee would seek to secure publication through other means when the House returns.

I am copying in the Secretary of State for Exiting the EU, in the expectation that you will liaise with him where necessary to respond to this request.

Yours ever,

The Rt Hon. Nicky Morgan MP
Chair of the Treasury Committee
