NEW HOMES IN ENGLAND

CHAPTER 1

STARTER HOMES

1 Purpose of this Chapter

The purpose of this Chapter is to promote the supply of starter homes in England.

2 What is a starter home?

(1) In this Chapter “starter home” means a building or part of a building that—
   (a) is a new dwelling,
   (b) is available for purchase by qualifying first-time buyers only,
   (c) is to be sold at a discount of at least 20% of the market value,
   (d) is to be sold for less than the price cap, and
   (e) is subject to any restrictions on sale or letting specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(2) “New dwelling” means a building or part of a building that—
(a) has been constructed for use as a single dwelling and has not previously been occupied, or
(b) has been adapted for use as a single dwelling and has not been occupied since its adaptation.

(3) “Qualifying first-time buyer” means an individual who—
(a) is a first-time buyer,
(b) is under the age of 40, and
(c) has any other characteristics specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State (for example, relating to nationality or minimum age).

(4) “First-time buyer” has the meaning given by section 57AA(2) of the Finance Act 2003.

(5) “Purchase”: the reference to a building or part of a building being available for purchase is to a freehold or a leasehold interest in the building or part being available for purchase.

(6) The “price cap” is set out in the table.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Location of starter home</th>
<th>Price cap</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Greater London</td>
<td>£450,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Outside Greater London</td>
<td>£250,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(7) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the definition of “first-time buyer”.

(8) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend the price cap; and the regulations may provide for different price caps to apply—
(a) for starter homes in different areas in Greater London;
(b) for starter homes in different areas outside Greater London.

3 General duty to promote supply of starter homes

(1) An English planning authority must carry out its relevant planning functions with a view to promoting the supply of starter homes in England.

(2) A local planning authority in England must have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State in carrying out that duty.

(3) “English planning authority” means—
(a) a local planning authority in England, or
(b) the Secretary of State when exercising a function relating to the grant of planning permission on an application in respect of land in England.

(4) “Relevant planning functions” means—
(a) functions under Part 3 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, other than functions relating to the grant of permission in principle;
(b) functions under Part 8 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999;
(c) functions under Part 2 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.
(5) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
   (a) amend the definition of “English planning authority” in subsection (3);
   (b) amend the definition of “relevant planning functions” in subsection (4).

4 Planning permission: provision of starter homes

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that an English planning authority may only grant planning permission for a residential development of a specified description if the starter homes requirement is met.

(2) “English planning authority” means—
   (a) a local planning authority in England, or
   (b) the Secretary of State when exercising a function relating to the grant of planning permission on an application in respect of land in England.

(3) “The starter homes requirement” means a requirement, specified in the regulations, relating to the provision of starter homes in England.

(4) Regulations under this section may, for example, provide that an English planning authority may grant planning permission only if a person has entered into a planning obligation to provide a certain number of starter homes or to pay a sum to be used by the authority for providing starter homes.

(5) The regulations may confer discretions on an English planning authority.

(6) The regulations may make different provision for different areas.

(7) In section 70 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (determination of applications: general considerations), for subsection (3) substitute—
   “(3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to the following—
   (a) section 65 and the following provisions of this Act;
   (b) section 15 of the Health Services Act 1976;
   (c) sections 66, 67, 72 and 73 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990;
   (d) regulations under section 4 of the Housing and Planning Act 2015 (starter homes requirements).”

5 Monitoring

(1) A local planning authority in England must prepare reports containing information about the carrying out of its functions in relation to starter homes.

(2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about reports under this section, including—
   (a) provision about their form and content;
   (b) provision about their timing;
   (c) provision requiring them to be combined with reports under section 35 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.

(3) The regulations may require a report to contain information about applications to which regulations under section 4 apply and details of how those applications have been dealt with.

(4) An authority must make its reports under this section available to the public.
6 Compliance directions

(1) The Secretary of State may make a compliance direction if satisfied that—
   (a) a local planning authority has failed to carry out its functions in relation to starter homes or has failed to carry them out adequately, and
   (b) a policy contained in a local development document for the authority is incompatible with those functions.

(2) A “compliance direction” is a direction that no regard is to be had to the policy for the purposes of any determination to be made under the planning Acts.

(3) A compliance direction remains in force until revoked by a further direction given by the Secretary of State.

(4) A direction under this section must include the Secretary of State’s reasons for making it.

(5) The Secretary of State must publish any direction under this section and give a copy to the local planning authority.

SELF-BUILD AND CUSTOM HOUSEBUILDING

8 Definitions

(1) In section 1 of the Self-build and Custom Housebuilding Act 2015 (register of persons seeking to acquire land, before subsection (1) insert—

“(A1) In this Act “self-build and custom housebuilding” means the building or completion by—

(a) individuals,

(b) associations of individuals, or

(c) persons working with or for individuals or associations of individuals, of houses to be occupied as homes by those individuals.

(A2) But it does not include the building of a house on a plot acquired from a person who builds the house wholly or mainly to plans or specifications decided or offered by that person.”

(2) In subsection (1) of that section—

(a) omit “(including bodies corporate that exercise functions on behalf of associations of individuals);”;

(b) for “in order to build houses for those individuals to occupy as homes” substitute “for their own self-build and custom housebuilding”.

(3) After subsection (6) of that section insert—

“(6A) In this section—

“association of individuals” includes a body corporate that exercises functions on behalf of an association of individuals;

“completion” does not include anything that falls outside the definition of “building operations” in section 55(1A) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990;

“home”, in relation to an individual, means the individual’s sole or main residence.”

(4) In section 5 of that Act (interpretation)—

““self-build and custom housebuilding” has the meaning given by section 1;”;

(b) for the definition of “serviced plot of land” substitute—

(c) at the end of that section (the existing text of which becomes subsection (1)) insert—

“(2) Regulations may amend the definition of “serviced plot of land” by adding further services to those mentioned in paragraph (a).”
9 Duty to grant planning permission etc

(1) After section 2 of the Self-build and Custom Housebuilding Act 2015 insert—

“2A Duty to grant planning permission etc

(1) This section applies to an authority that is both a relevant authority and a local planning authority within the meaning of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (“the 1990 Act”).

(2) An authority to which this section applies must give suitable development permission in respect of enough serviced plots of land to meet the demand for self-build and custom housebuilding in the authority’s area arising in each base period.

(3) Regulations must specify the time allowed for compliance with the duty under subsection (2) in relation to any base period.

(4) The first base period, in relation to an authority, is the period—

(a) beginning with the day on which the register under section 1 kept by the authority is established, and

(b) ending with the day before the day on which section 9 of the Housing and Planning Act 2015 comes into force.

Each subsequent base period is the period of 12 months beginning immediately after the end of the previous base period.

(5) In this section “development permission” means planning permission or permission in principle (within the meaning of the 1990 Act).

(6) For the purposes of this section—

(a) the demand for self-build and custom housebuilding arising in an authority’s area in a base period is the demand as evidenced by the number of entries added during that period to the register under section 1 kept by the authority;

(b) an authority gives development permission if such permission is granted—

(i) by the authority,

(ii) by the Secretary of State or the Mayor of London on an application made to the authority, or

(iii) (in the case of permission in principle) by a development order, under section 59A(1)(a) of the 1990 Act, in relation to land allocated for development in a document made, maintained or adopted by the authority;

(c) development permission is “suitable” if it is permission in respect of development that could include self-build and custom housebuilding.

(7) A grant of development permission in relation to a particular plot of land may not be taken into account in relation to more than one base period in determining whether the duty in this section is discharged.

(8) No account is to be taken for the purposes of this section of development permission granted before the start of the first base period.

(9) Regulations under subsection (3)—
(a) may make different provision for different authorities or descriptions of authority;
(b) may make different provision for different proportions of the demand for self-build and custom housebuilding arising in a particular base period.”

(2) In section 3 of that Act (guidance), after subsection (2) insert—

“(3) An authority that is subject to the duty in section 2A must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State in relation to that duty.”

(3) In relation to entries made on the register under section 1 of that Act before the commencement of this section, any reference to self-build and custom housebuilding in section 2A of that Act (inserted by subsection (1) above) is to be read as if, in section 1 of that Act (as amended by section 8 above)—

(a) the words “or completion” in subsection (A1) were omitted, and
(b) the definitions of “completion” and “home” in subsection (6A) were omitted.

10 Exemption from duty

After section 2A of the Self-build and Custom Housebuilding Act 2015 (inserted by section 9 above) insert—

“2B Exemption from duty in section 2A

(1) If an authority applies for exemption to the Secretary of State in accordance with regulations, the Secretary of State may direct that the authority is not subject to the duty in section 2A.

(2) The regulations may specify the cases or circumstances in which an authority may apply for exemption.

(3) Regulations may make further provision about applications under subsection (1), and may in particular—

(a) require an application to be supported by specified information and by any further information that the Secretary of State requires the authority to provide;
(b) require an authority that is granted exemption to notify persons on the register kept under section 1.”

11 Further and consequential amendments

(1) In the Schedule to the Self-build and Custom Housebuilding Act 2015 (registers under section 1), in paragraph 3 (eligibility)—

(a) after sub-paragraph (2) insert—

“(2A) Regulations relating to the matters set out in sub-paragraph (2) may provide for eligibility to be determined by reference to criteria set by a relevant authority.”;

(b) at the end insert—

“(4) The regulations may provide—

(a) that persons who fail to meet particular conditions of eligibility, but who meet the other conditions specified, must be entered on a separate part of the register;
(b) that the duty in section 2A does not apply in relation to such persons.”

(2) In paragraph 6 of that Schedule (fees)—
(a) in sub-paragraph (1), for “section 1” substitute “sections 1 and 2A”;
(b) in sub-paragraph (2)(b), after “fixing of fees by” insert “the Secretary of State or”;
(c) after sub-paragraph (2) insert—
“(3) The regulations may specify circumstances in which no fee is to be paid.”

(3) In section 4(1) of that Act (regulations subject to affirmative resolution procedure)—
(a) in paragraph (b) omit “or”;
(b) after that paragraph insert—
“(ba) section 2A(3),
(bb) section 5(2), or”.

(4) In section 4(2) of that Act (regulations subject to negative resolution procedure)—
(a) before paragraph (a) insert—
“(za) section 2B,”;
(b) in paragraph (a), for “section 5” substitute “section 5(1)”.

CHAPTER 1
INTRODUCTION

12 Introduction to this Part

(1) This Part is about rogue landlords and letting property agents.

(2) In summary—
(a) Chapter 2 allows a banning order to be made where a landlord or letting property agent has been convicted of a banning order offence,
(b) Chapter 3 requires a database of rogue landlords and letting property agents to be established,
(c) Chapter 4 allows a rent repayment order to be made against a landlord who has committed an offence to which that Chapter applies or who has breached a banning order applies, and
(d) Chapter 5 contains definitions.

BANNING ORDERS

Banning orders: key definitions

13 “Banning order” and “banning order offence”

(1) In this Part “banning order” means an order, made by the First-tier Tribunal, banning a person from—
(a) letting housing in England,
(b) engaging in English letting agency work,
(c) engaging in English property management work, or
(d) doing two or more of those things.

(2) In this Part “banning order offence” means an offence of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(3) Regulations under subsection (2) may, in particular, describe an offence by reference to—
(a) the nature of the offence,
(b) the characteristics of the offender,
(c) the place where the offence is committed,
(d) the circumstances in which it is committed,
(e) the court sentencing a person for the offence, or
(f) the sentence imposed.

Imposition of banning orders

14 Application and notice of intended proceedings

(1) A local housing authority in England may apply for a banning order against a person who has been convicted of a banning order offence.

(2) If a local housing authority in England applies for a banning order against a person who has been convicted of the same offence in respect of the same conduct, it must also apply for a banning order against any officer who has been convicted of the same offence in respect of the same conduct.

(3) Before applying for a banning order under subsection (1), the authority must give the person a notice of intended proceedings—
(a) informing the person that the authority is proposing to apply for a banning order and explaining why,
(b) stating the length of each proposed ban, and
(c) inviting the person to make representations within a period specified in the notice of not less than 28 days (“the notice period”).

(4) The authority must consider any representations made during the notice period.

(5) The authority must wait until the notice period has ended before applying for a banning order.
(6) A notice of intended proceedings may not be given after the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the person was convicted of the offence to which the notice relates.

15 Making a banning order

(1) The First-tier Tribunal may make a banning order against a person who—
(a) has been convicted of a banning order offence, and
(b) was a residential landlord or a letting property agent at the time the offence was committed (but see subsection (3)).

(2) A banning order may only be made on an application by a local housing authority in England that has complied with section 14.

(3) Where an application is made under section 14(1) against an officer of a body corporate, the First-tier Tribunal may make a banning order against the officer even if the condition in subsection (1)(b) of this section is not met.

(4) In deciding whether to make a banning order against a person, and in deciding what order to make, the Tribunal must consider—
(a) the seriousness of the offence of which the person has been convicted,
(b) any previous convictions that the person has for a banning order offence,
(c) whether the person is or has at any time been included in the database of rogue landlords and letting property agents, and
(d) the likely effect of the banning order on the person and anyone else who may be affected by the order.

16 Duration and effect of banning order

(1) A banning order must specify the length of the ban for each banned activity.

(2) A ban must last at least 6 months.

(3) A banning order may contain exceptions to the ban for some or all of the period to which the ban relates and the exceptions may be subject to conditions.

(4) A banning order may, for example, contain exceptions—
(a) to deal with cases where there are existing tenancies and the landlord does not have the power to bring them to an immediate end, or
(b) to allow letting agents to wind down current business.

17 Power to require information

(1) A local housing authority may require a person to provide specified information for the purpose of enabling the authority to decide whether to apply for a banning order against the person.

(2) It is an offence for the person to fail to comply with a requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse for the failure.

(3) It is an offence for the person to provide information that is false or misleading if the person knows that the information is false or misleading or is reckless as to whether it is false or misleading.
18  Revocation or variation of banning orders

(1) A person against whom a banning order is made may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for an order under this section revoking or varying the order.

(2) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions all of which are overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must revoke the banning order.

(3) If the banning order was made on the basis of more than one conviction and some of them (but not all) have been overturned on appeal, the First-tier Tribunal may—

   (a) vary the banning order, or
   (b) revoke the banning order.

(4) If the banning order was made on the basis of one or more convictions that have become spent, the First-tier Tribunal may—

   (a) vary the banning order, or

DETERMINATION BY THE UPPER TRIBUNAL

Introduction

22  This Part applies where, in accordance with paragraph 8 or 19, the acquiring authority refer a counter-notice to the Upper Tribunal.

23  In this Part “land proposed to be acquired” and “additional land” have the meanings given by paragraph 2 or 14 as the case may be.

Role of the Upper Tribunal

24  (1) The Upper Tribunal must determine whether the severance of the land proposed to be acquired would—

   (a) in the case of a house, building or factory, cause material detriment to the house, building or factory, or

   (b) in the case of a park or garden, seriously affect the amenity or convenience of the house to which the park or garden belongs.

   (2) In making its determination, the Upper Tribunal must take into account—

   (a) the effect of the severance,

   (b) the proposed use of the land proposed to be acquired, and

   (c) if that land is proposed to be acquired for works or other purposes extending to other land, the effect of the whole of the works and the use of the other land.

25  If the Upper Tribunal determines that the severance of the land proposed to be acquired would have either of the consequences described in paragraph 24(1) it must determine how much of the additional land the acquiring authority ought to be required to take in addition to the land proposed to be acquired.

Effect of determination that more land should be acquired

26  (1) This paragraph applies where the Upper Tribunal determines that the acquiring authority ought to be required to take the whole or part of the additional land.
(2) The compulsory purchase order has effect as if it included the owner’s interest in the additional land.

(3) If the acquiring authority have already served a notice to treat in relation to the land proposed to be acquired, the notice has effect as if it also included the owner’s interest in the additional land.

(4) If the acquiring authority have not served a notice to treat, they must serve a notice to treat in relation to the land proposed to be acquired and the additional land.

(5) If the acquiring authority have already entered on and taken possession of the land proposed to be acquired, the power to award compensation under section 7 includes power to award compensation for any loss suffered by the owner by reason of the temporary severance of the land from the additional land.

(6) Where the Upper Tribunal determines that the acquiring authority ought to be required to take part only of the additional land, a reference in sub-paragraph (2) to (5) to “the additional land” is to that part.

Withdrawal of notice to treat following determination

27 (1) This paragraph applies where—
(a) the acquiring authority have served a notice to treat in respect of the land proposed to be acquired,
(b) the Upper Tribunal has determined that the authority ought to be required to take the whole or part of the additional land, and
(c) the authority have not yet entered on and taken possession of any of the land proposed to be acquired or the additional land.

(2) The acquiring authority may withdraw the notice to treat in respect of the whole of the land at any time within the period of 6 weeks beginning with the day on which the Upper Tribunal made its determination.

(3) If the acquiring authority withdraws the notice to treat under this paragraph they must pay the person on whom the notice was served compensation for any loss or expense caused by the giving and withdrawal of the notice.

(4) Any dispute as to the compensation is to be determined by the Upper Tribunal.”
