Notes:

The Committee of the whole House has to take a decision on whether each Clause and Schedule, as amended or not as the case may be, stands part of the Bill, in the sequence prescribed by the Programme Order.

Amendments and New Clauses which have been selected by the Chair are grouped for debate. The debate takes place at the point where the Amendment or New Clause leading the group occurs in the Bill, in the sequence prescribed by the Programme Order. The Question proposed on the first Amendment or New Clause leading the group has to be disposed of in some way (withdrawn, agreed to or negatived).

Other Amendments or New Clauses in a group on which some debate has arisen before the time specified in the Programme Order for conclusion of proceedings on that part of the Bill may, at the discretion of the Chair, be moved formally for decision, with no further debate.

That formal decision comes at the point where that Amendment or New Clause is reached, going through the Bill in the sequence prescribed by the Programme Order. So the formal decision might not follow on straight away after the end of the debate on the first Amendment or New Clause with which it had been grouped for debate.
