TO SPEAKERS AND PRESIDING OFFICERS OF EUROPEAN UPPER CHAMBERS

London, January 2013

At the 14th Meeting of the Association of European Senates held in Paris last year it was agreed that the next meeting should be hosted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom Parliament. It therefore gives me great pleasure to invite you to attend the 15th Meeting of the Association of European Senates to be held in London on 13–14 June this year.

The working sessions will take place at the Queen's Robing Room of the House of Lords, Palace of Westminster. The topics for discussion will be as follows:

- Morning Session: "Relationships between upper and lower Chambers"
- Afternoon Session: "Senates and the use of social media".

The draft programme, registration form, accommodation details and all other information relating to the Meeting are available on www.parliament.uk/AES-ASE-London2013. This information, which will be updated regularly, also gives the contact details of the conference secretariat. I should be grateful if your delegation would register its attendance and make the hotel booking as soon as practicable, using the forms on the website.

The Meeting will begin with a welcome dinner at 7.30 pm on Thursday 13 June at Fishmongers' Hall, London, and conclude with a reception at the House of Lords at the end of business on Friday 14 June.

I very much hope you that will be able to join us and look forward to welcoming your delegation to London in June.
