

Registration of interests form for House of Lords members' staff

The person applying for a parliamentary security pass must fill in and sign and date this form before the sponsoring member signs the declaration on page 4 below. This form should be handed in to the Pass Office at the same time as the application for the security pass.

In accordance with resolutions of the House of Lords, persons who hold parliamentary security passes or email accounts as secretaries or research assistants to members of the House of Lords are required to provide the information requested below. The information will be entered in the Register of Interests of House of Lords Members' Staff and will be available for public inspection. Please contact the Registrar of Lords' Interests if you have any queries about registration. Members' secretaries and research assistants are subject to the Code of Conduct for Members' Staff.

Completing this form

If your only employment is for the member of the House of Lords who sponsors your parliamentary security pass or email account, please tick here and go to category 2 on the next page

If you have any other employment in addition to your work for the member of the House of Lords who sponsors your parliamentary security pass or email account (including work for other members of either House), please go to category 1 on the next page.

If you are applying for a parliamentary security pass only as a carer or driver of a member of the House of Lords, you are not required to provide the information in categories 1 to 3. Please just sign on page 4 below.

Category 1: Employment outside the House

You must register any employment you have in addition to your work for the member of the House of Lords who sponsors your parliamentary security pass or email account.

- There is no need to state the amount of any remuneration you receive;
- Do not use acronyms or abbreviations without making clear what they stand for;
- Any change must be registered within one month.

Name of other employer(s)

Nature of business(es)

Your job title(s)

If it is not obvious from your job title, what is the nature of your work for your other employer(s)?

Category 2: Any other financial interest in businesses or organisations involved in parliamentary lobbying

You must also register any other financial interest you have in businesses or organisations involved in parliamentary lobbying. Do not register under this category an interest as an employee already registered under category 1.

If none, tick here and go to category 3 on the next page.

Name of business or organisation

How is the business or organisation involved in parliamentary lobbying?

What is your financial interest in the business or organisation? (You do not need to state the monetary value of your financial interest.)

Please bear in mind paragraph 9 of the Code of Conduct for Members' Staff:
"9. Members' staff shall not make use of their access to the member who sponsors their pass, to other members (of either House), to the parliamentary email network or to the parliamentary estate to further the interests of an outside person or body from whom they have received or expect to receive payment or other incentive or reward."

Category 3: Gifts and benefits

You are required to register any gift or benefit (e.g. hospitality, travel, services or facilities) you receive if the value of the gift or benefit from a single source exceeds £140 in the course of a calendar year and the gift or benefit relates to or arises from your work in Parliament. You must register any relevant gift or benefit within one month of receipt of the gift or benefit.

If you are applying for a parliamentary security pass or email account for the first time, it is unlikely that you will need to fill in the boxes below, unless you received a gift or benefit before you started work in Parliament and it was given to you because you would be working in Parliament.

If you are applying for the renewal of a parliamentary security pass or email account, you should have already provided the Registrar of Lords' Interests with the relevant information in the boxes below. If you have not already done so, please provide the information now.

- Do not register any gifts, benefits or travel provided by the member(s) for whom you work;
- There is no need to state the monetary value of any gift or benefit you receive;
- You should register visits made in the United Kingdom and abroad;
- Do not use acronyms or abbreviations without making clear what they stand for.

If you have received no relevant gift(s) or benefit(s), tick here, sign on page 4 below and send off form; otherwise please provide the following information:
