

Special Public Bill Committee on the Intellectual Property (Unjustified Threats) Bill

Declaration of Interests as of 25 October 2016

Lord Saville of Newdigate

- No relevant interests declared

Baroness Bowles of Berkhamsted

- Retired UK and European patent attorney and former fellow of the Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys. Former member of the European Patent Institute and a former representative before OHIM (now EUIPO). Ceased active practice for the main part in 2005 but retained practicing certificates and memberships until 2014 when patent and trademark practice was sold. There is residual income to Baroness Bowles' husband from the sold-on practice until 2019.
- Proprietor of a registered trade mark (the name of her firm).

Viscount Hanworth

- No relevant interests declared

Lord Lucas

- Lord Lucas owns a trademark, "The Good Schools Guide", which he has often had to defend with (justified) threats.

Baroness Mobarik

- No relevant interests declared

Baroness Neville-Rolfe

- Minister in charge of the Bill

Lord Plant of Highfield

- Copyright holder for 10 books written in academic capacity in English and in 15 other languages and editions in the UK, EU, USA, East Asia.

The Earl of Shrewsbury

- Managing Trustee of The A W P Hamilton Will Settlement. The trustees (the Earl of Shrewsbury and Lord Ingestre, his son) administer the Trust which collects various royalties derived from the licensing of the literary works of that author, and they distribute the proceeds to the beneficiaries of the Will Settlement. None of the Trustees are beneficiaries, and Lord Shrewsbury receives no recompense from his Trusteeship.

Lord Stevenson of Balmacara

- No relevant interests declared

Baroness Wilcox

- No relevant interests declared