

SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE LICENSING ACT 2003

DECLARATION OF RELEVANT INTERESTS AS OF 29 NOVEMBER 2016

Baroness McIntosh of Pickering (Chairman)

Shareholding in Diageo
Honorary President, Pickering Conservative Club
Member, APPG on beer
Member, APPG on wine and spirits
Member, APPG on food and drink manufacturing
Briefings and hospitality from the Scotch Whisky Association

Lord Blair of Boughton

Long service as a police policy maker including this area of law.

Lord Brooke of Alverthorpe

Vice Chair, APPG on alcohol harm
Patron, British Liver Trust
Patron, Kenward Trust – alcohol and drug rehabilitation centre
Member, APPG on obesity

Lord Davies of Stamford

No relevant interests.

Baroness Eaton

No relevant interests.

Lord Foster of Bath

No relevant interests.

Baroness Goudie

No relevant interests.

Baroness Grender

I hold a 'Temporary Events Notice' for a school summer fair on the 9th July 2016 (I have regularly done so on a bi-annual basis for the past 4 years).

Lord Hayward (resigned 5 September 2016)

Financial interests in Marstons, Diageo and Greene King
Former CEO of the British Beer and Pub Association (BBPA), I retain personal links with members of the industry.
As CEO of the BBPA I led for the whole industry in discussions with the then government on the introduction of the [Licensing Act].
Member, APPG on beer

Baroness Henig

Non-Executive Chairman, SECURIGROUP Ltd (provides, amongst other things, door supervisors to pub chains)

President, Security Institute (presides over professional qualifications for those in security industry)

Committee member, APPG on beer

APPG on wine and spirits

Lord Mancroft

No relevant interests.

Lord Smith of Hindhead

Chief Executive, The Association of Conservative Clubs (ACC Ltd)

Chairman, Committee of Registered Club Associations

Executive Committee, APPG on beer

Executive Committee, APPG Non-profit Making Clubs Group

Director, Dawlish Constitutional Club Company Ltd

Trustee (in the capacity of CEO of ACC Ltd) of up to 200 Conservative Clubs throughout the UK.

Baroness Watkins of Tavistock

No relevant interests.