

Contribution from Stuart Long

Dear Commission,

This might be a small point but I do feel that it is important, Mr Speaker is seeking views on how to best engage parliament in the digital society.

As you might be aware the only ways to contact the office of the speaker is either telephone or good old fashioned royal mail or other postal service. Given that over 20+ twitter accounts exist for parliamentary select committees etc I would like to suggest maybe that of an email address to allow submissions without having to use the traditional methods and more of that used day to day in the modern world, this might take the form of thespeaker@parliament.uk

I thank you for listening to my thought and hope it maybe of some use

Kind regards,

Stuart long
