THE PRIME MINISTER

25 April 2016

Dear Crispin,

Many thanks for your letter of 17 March about Libya, and my apologies for not having replied sooner.

I am grateful for the opportunity you offered for me to give oral evidence to your Committee for this Inquiry. I am afraid that, for reasons I am sure you will understand, the pressures on my diary in this period will not permit me to appear before the end of the current session of Parliament. But I know that the Foreign Secretary and other relevant parts of the Government have provided the Committee with a good deal of written and oral evidence, and I certainly do not wish to hold up the process of you producing your draft report.

Yours,
David
