Dear Paul

Thank you for attending the Committee on 21 November to give evidence about asylum accommodation.

During the session, the Committee challenged you several times about the accuracy of statements you had made about what the Home Office knew about the mother and baby unit described in the ICIBI's report, based on information we were given by the Inspectorate.

As you will be aware, we have since been informed by the Inspectorate that the information they gave us was wrong and I am sorry for that.

Please accept my apologies - clearly any suggestion that your answers were inaccurate or misleading was wrong.

I look forward to speaking to you on Monday.

Yours sincerely

Yvette Cooper MP
