

Housing and Planning Bill

Analysis of the application of Standing Order 83O in respect of Lords amendments

For the purposes of the Commons consideration of Lords message on 11 May 2016, the following is the Department's assessment of the application of Standing Order 83O.

Territorial application

1. Lords amendment 47E applies to England only. It does not alter the territorial application of the Bill.

Subject matter and legislative competence of devolved administrations

2. The subject matter of Lords amendment 47E is housing. Housing is within the legislative competence of the National Assembly for Wales, the Scottish Parliament and the Northern Ireland Assembly.