The Law Lords' Expenses 1 April 2009 - 30 September 2009

In accordance with the Constitutional Reform Act 2005, the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom replaced the Judicial Office of the House of Lords on 1 October 2009 and the Law Lords were statutorily disqualified from sitting or voting in the House. Prior to this, the Law Lords attended at Westminster throughout the law terms (which did not always coincide with the parliamentary terms) and were entitled to claim travel expenses between their main residence and Westminster to discharge their judicial duties. The Law Lords' expenses therefore reflect the number of times that they were required to travel to the House to discharge their judicial duties, in addition to any times they were recorded as sitting in the Chamber for public business. The details below relate solely to the period 1 April 2009 to 30 September 2009.
