By-elections to replace Lord Rea and Lord Elton

Notice to electors

Hereditary peer by-elections were suspended on 23 March 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Procedure and Privileges Committee, cognisant of the legal position, which is that the conduct of by-elections is required under the House of Lords Act 1999, decided on 22 April 2021 that the by-elections should start again. Their report on this was published on 26 April.¹ By-elections are to be conducted using electronic means.

This notice sets out the arrangements for two by-elections to fill vacancies among the excepted hereditary peers who sit in the House of Lords:

- Following the death of Lord Rea on 1 June 2020 there is a vacancy among the excepted Labour hereditary peers who sit in the House of Lords.
- Following the retirement of Lord Elton on 29 October 2020 there is a vacancy among the excepted hereditary peers who sit in the House of Lords.

Under Standing Order 9, the vacancies are to be filled by means of by-elections. Those eligible to stand are all hereditary peers whose names are on the register of hereditary peers wishing to stand for election as members of the House of Lords, maintained by the Clerk of the Parliaments. All those on this register are asked to indicate by 12 noon on Wednesday 30 June if they wish to stand as a candidate for the by-election to replace Lord Rea or the by-election to replace Lord Elton.

Labour hereditary peer by-election

Lord Rea was one of two hereditary peers elected by the Labour hereditary peers. Under Standing Order 9(2), the voters in this by-election will be the excepted hereditary peers belonging to the Labour group², of whom there are currently three³ eligible to vote. A list is in Annex 1.

Whole House hereditary peer by-election (Conservative)

Lord Elton was one of the 15 hereditary peers elected by the whole House in 1999 from among those ready to serve as Deputy Speakers or in any other office. Therefore, under Standing Order 9(3), his successor will be elected by the whole House.⁴ In 1999 the Procedure Committee

² All peers in this group who have taken the oath on or before 7 July are eligible to vote, except those who are subject to statutory disqualification, suspended from the service of the House or on leave of absence.

³ This figure comprises one hereditary peer elected by Labour hereditary peers who currently are in the Labour group; and two hereditary peers elected by the whole House who currently are in the Labour group.

⁴ All peers who have taken the oath on or before 7 July are eligible to vote, except those who are subject to statutory disqualification, suspended from the service of the House or on leave of absence.

recommended that any peer elected at a by-election in this category should not be expected to serve as a Deputy Speaker. Under the terms of an informal agreement amongst the parties and groups in the House of Lords, it is expected that this vacancy will be filled by an hereditary peer who will sit as a Conservative member of the House.

This Notice sets out the timetable for the two by-elections.

Conduct of the by-elections

Candidates will be invited, but not required, to submit statements in support of their candidature. Such statements, which will not exceed 75 words, will be circulated by the House Administration to all electors.

Voting system

The voting system will be conducted via a secret ballot. The Alternative Vote system will be used for all by-elections.

Voters place the figure 1 in the box next to the name of the candidate they most strongly support, the figure 2 against the next most favoured candidate, and so on. Voters may cast as many or as few votes as they wish. In order to be elected, the first successful candidate must receive at least as many votes as all the other candidates put together. In the event of this not happening after first preference votes have been allocated, the votes of the candidates receiving the lowest number of first preference votes will be shared out according to the second preference marked on them. This will be repeated until one candidate has at least half of the total valid votes.

Results

The results of both elections will be announced in the House of Lords chamber by the Clerk of the Parliaments at a convenient moment (likely to be after oral questions) on Thursday 15 July.

The full results, including the number of first preference votes cast for each candidate and the position after each transfer of votes, will be available in the Printed Paper Office soon after the announcement by the Clerk of the Parliaments. The results will also be published online at www.parliament.uk.

Ballot papers will be posted on Monday 5 July. The ballot papers for postal votes will be sent by Civica Election Services.
