

The 1866 Women's Suffrage Petition Name List: Frequently Asked Questions

What is the 1866 petition?

The 1866 women's suffrage petition was the first mass petition for Votes for Women presented to Parliament by John Stuart Mill MP on 7 June 1866. See:

www.parliament.uk/1866

What happened to the original petition?

The original document with the actual signatures presented to the House of Commons was not preserved. This was routine for petitions in this period.

So where has this list of names come from?

The petition organisers printed and circulated a list of signatories as a pamphlet back in 1866. Only two copies of this rare document are known to have survived. One is at Girton College Cambridge, and another is in private hands. This transcript has been created from the one in private hands. Many thanks to Elizabeth Crawford for facilitating this.

How many names are there?

Approximately 1500.

Why approximately?

There are 1499 names listed on the pamphlet. However the House of Commons Select Committee on Public Petitions counted 1521 on the petition, indicating there may have been 22 late additions. There is no way of knowing who these extra 22 may have been.

How do I look for a name?

The names are (almost all) listed in alphabetical order so you can browse, and also this is a searchable PDF, use CTRL-F on your keyboard or similar to search.

I've found my ancestor on the list!

Fantastic! Do let us know via vote100@parliament.uk

I've got additional information for your list!

Thank you very much, do let us know via vote100@parliament.uk. We've tried to keep this transcript exactly as originally published, but any additional information is nevertheless welcome.

I've found a mistake on your list!

We have checked it thoroughly, but unfortunately mistakes do happen. Let us know via vote100@parliament.uk

Is it possible to get this list in another format?

Yes, if you'd like to do more data analysis we can supply it as an Excel spreadsheet on request. Email us and let us know how you want to use it.

Where can I find out more about the 1866 petition and its signatories?

Ann Dingsdale researched many of the signatories for her PhD thesis and blog:

<http://1866suffragepetitionwomen.blogspot.co.uk/>

Elizabeth Crawford has also done much work in this area, see

<https://womanandhersphere.com/tag/1866-womens-suffrage-petition/>

There is a selection of items from LSE Library's exhibition 'Endless Endeavours: From the 1866 Women's Suffrage Petition to the Fawcett Society' at

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/lselibrary/albums/72157667367597386>

Parliament has developed an online teaching resource for schools using source based evidence to help students understand the context of the petition, as well as highlighting the petition signatory locations on a map. This can be found at:
